

Unsolicited Proposal Assessment Forms (USP AFs)

USP AF5: Assessment of proposed new technology/concept

Note : This form is only for projects that involve a New Technology/Concept.

Objective: To establish the eligibility of the project pursuant to Section 10.1(a) and 10.2 of the Revised 2022 BOT Law IRR.

The information in this form shall be supported by the required documents on the proposed New Technology/Concept indicated in the list of documentary requirements for unsolicited projects pursuant to Section 10.7 of the 2022 BOT Law IRR.

Official Project Name

1) Does the project include a new technology/concept (New T/C) as defined in Section 10.2 of the Revised 2022 BOT Law IRR?

New T/C means any of the following: green, smart, emerging, or state-of-the-art technology, or any other similar or related concepts/technologies.

Yes      No

1.1) Is the proposed New T/C new or pioneering where the project is intended to be implemented?

Yes      No

1.2) Mark "x" for each positive impact that the new T/C has on the implementation and operations of the project:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Reduces construction costs
<input type="checkbox"/>	Accelerates project execution
<input type="checkbox"/>	Improves safety
<input type="checkbox"/>	Enhances project performance
<input type="checkbox"/>	Improves productivity or quality of produce
<input type="checkbox"/>	Extends economic life
<input type="checkbox"/>	Reduces O&M costs
<input type="checkbox"/>	Reduces adverse or unfavorable environmental impact
<input type="checkbox"/>	Reduces social/economic disturbances either during construction or operation phase
<input type="checkbox"/>	Increased use of materials with high domestic content
<input type="checkbox"/>	Other feature/s of the new T/C that has a positive impact on the implementation and operations of the project

1.3) Has the project proponent itself, or through any of its consortium members or contractors or nominated entities, directly and successfully implemented the said new T/C at a scale similar to the proposed project?

Yes      No